- You can check the status of your application on <https://bursaryconnect.csir.co.za> by using your login credentials.

10. How are the bursary payments made?

- The full bursary amount will be deposited to the student's university account to cover registration and tuition fees, the balance will be allocated on a monthly or quarterly basis by the university to the student.
- On receipt of a signed bursary contract and proof of registration, payment to the University is then processed.

11. Why is my application unsuccessful?

- You did not meet the DSTI CSIR Inter-Programme Bursary Scheme eligibility criteria.
- There is a limited number of bursary positions available.
- Incomplete application e.g. research details not submitted, and no supporting documents uploaded.
- Misalignment to the funded thematic areas.

12. Can I hold 2 sponsors simultaneously?

- You are not prohibited to receive additional funding from any source provided it is NOT funding from any government department/agency (e.g. NRF, CSIR Studentship, CSIR Bursary, CAIR Bursary, TiCoc, SETA's and Ledger Bursary). The CSIR must be informed in writing of any additional funding that you may receive from any private company/institution. Please note that the additional funding should not be more than 50% of the CSIR value.

13. I do not have a research topic yet, can I still apply?

- It is compulsory for Master's and Doctorate students to submit their research proposal as this is crucial in terms of determining whether students research work is aligned to one of the funded thematic areas on the programme.

14. I do not have a supervisor as yet, can I still apply?

- It is the responsibility of the student to find a suitable supervisor and ensure that the supervisor supports the application.
