

CSIR CORPORATE FUNCTIONS BURSARY PROGRAMME 2018

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

To realise how important and powerful science is, it helps to imagine a world without it. There would simply be no improvement. The reason that this world does not exist is because organisations like the CSIR are here. Armed with some of the best minds in the world, we work on trying to solve problems that can help all South Africans and make a significant contribution to the global wealth of knowledge. To achieve this, our scientists, engineers and technologists (SET base) are supported by equally committed employees in our various corporate functions portfolios.

The CSIR corporate functions Bursary Programme aims to build a pipeline and strengthen our capabilities in the corporate functions to ensure business excellence that will foster a conducive environment for the Research, Development and Innovation work to thrive. This bursary is open to academically qualifying young people and also aims to attract and increase participation of women and black people. The CSIR hereby invites bursary applications from talented young people wishing to pursue their studies in the following areas:
